Intelligence Unit Deputy To Speak Here

Robert Amory To Address National Guard Assn. Meet

Robert Amory, deputy director of the United States' world-wide Central Intelligence Agency, will deliver the principal address to the state convention of the Wisconsin National Guard Assn. here Saturday evening. Amory will speak at the convention banquet at the Hotel Northland.

Other speakers at the convention will be Maj. Gen. Ralph Olson, state adjutant general; Maj. Gen. W. T. Breidster, commander of the 32nd Division; and Brig. Gen. Farris, head of the Air National Guard of Wisconsin. Olson will report on the overall state guard situation. Breidster will discuss the division, which recently completed its first summer training camp as a pentomic division; and Farris will give a resume of Air Guard activities.

All will deliver their reports on the floor of the convention.

Approximately 400 Guardsmen and their wives are expected to attend the one-day session, which opens with registration Saturday morning at the Northland. Business sessions will be conducted during the afternoon, the convention closing with a cocktail hour, banquet and dance during the evening.

Visiting wives will be entertained with a special program of events including a tour of historical places and a tea and style show at Prange's.

Capt. George VanRemortel is local chairman of the event, assisted by a number of committee chairmen from local Guard units. General convention chairman is Lt. Col. Donald C. Rasmussen, president of the state association.

MEMORANDUM FOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR (INTELLIGENCE):

1. The Department of State and U.S.I.A. recommend these changes in the draft of the speech you are scheduled to deliver to the Wisconsin National Guard Association on Saturday, 29 August 1959:
2. Page 3, where you state, "even if we are jumped first" (re nuclear surprise) reads too much as though you are giving too much credence to surprise.
3. On page 8, instead of "Soviet forces which will face the ... West," it is recommended that you say, "Soviet forces which would face the ... West."
4. On pages 10 and 11 it is recommended that you change the several references to "Commies" to the less gentle and more direct word "Communists."
5. On page 11 strengthen the reference to Communist objective to absorb Kerala. A recommended rewording of the text is indicated on page 11. It is also recommended that on page 11 you omit direct, specific reference to one party -- the Congress Party -- whose incompetence, (it is true) did exist and was exploited by the Communists. Why not say instead "incompetence of other parties"?
6. In the last sentence on page 12 surprise is expressed that CIA should publicly admit that the U.S. has "its secret services" for secret operations, (as against secret intelligence.)
7. On page 14 a point of grammar is raised. Either omit the word "is", or restore a word such as "what" which may have been inadvertently dropped by the typist.
8. It is recommended that the above minor changes from U.S.I.A. and State be adopted.
9. In order to meet the responsibilities of this office, it is requested that you furnish us with a copy of the speech, if you are going to use a text, or a copy of the notes (such as these herewith), if you are going to talk from notes. We will, of course, be called upon by the press, once you speak, to furnish copies of your speech.
10. Information is also requested as to the hour of day or night when your speech will be made.
